FINANCIAL SUPPORT

Source of Funds (Amount per Student)
Charter schools in North Carolina operate with funding from local, state, and federal sources. The financial support reflected in these numbers includes all expenses concerned with operating a charter school, including teacher and administrator salaries, textbooks, and other educational supplies and materials.

Use of Funds
Education is a labor-intensive enterprise, as reflected in the accompanying chart. Salaries for teachers and other staff are usually the largest expense in a charter school. State and federal funds are generally allotted for specific purposes, services, or programs.

HIGH STUDENT PERFORMANCE

Performance of Students in Each Grade on the ABCs End-of-Grade Tests
Percentage of Students’ Scores At or Above Grade Level
An annual measurable objectives (AMOs) Per No Child Left Behind, North Carolina set AMOs in reading and mathematics based on 2010-11 data.

School Performance
Each year, schools in North Carolina may receive several designations based on their performance on the state’s ABCs tests. These designations are awarded on the basis of the percentage of students performing at grade level and on whether students have learned as much as they are expected to learn in one year. The designations earned by your school are displayed below, followed by a brief description of each designation.
